Man stabbed in downtown parking lot

August 04, 2008

SUNNY FREEMAN
STAFF REPORTER

A man was taken to hospital after being knifed in the city's downtown core this morning.

Police were called to a parking lot in the Adelaide St. W. and Widmer St. area around 3 a.m. this morning, said Toronto police Sgt. Frank Pantaleo.

The victim was in the rear of a parked SUV with a woman when a group of men in a gold Toyota Corolla parked beside the vehicle. The two groups exchanged words and gestures and as the victim got out of the back of the SUV, the suspects attacked him.

The victim was punched and stabbed twice in the leg.

He was treated and released from hospital with minor injuries.

Pantaleo said the details are "sketchy" right now, and there appears to be no obvious reason why the victim was targeted.

Police are looking for four suspects who fled the scene.

The first suspect is described as an Asian man in his early 20s, about 5 foot 5 or 5 foot 6 with a stocky build and short black hair.

The second suspect is described as an Asian man, taller and thinner than the first man.

The third suspect is described as an Asian man about 17 or 18-years-old, with dark spiked hair and taller and thinner than the first suspect. The fourth is described as an Asian man.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Toronto police at 416-808-5200 or Crime Stoppers at 416-222-TIPS (8477).
